

Commemoration of the terrorist attack 1972 in Munich

On September 5, 2012 at Connollystraße 31, the scene of the tragic events, official delegates, among them Israel's Vice Premier Minister Silvan Shalom, Munich's Lord Mayor Christian Ude and the chairwoman of the local Jewish Congregation Charlotte Knobloch gathered for a wreath laying ceremony. Also present were surviving members of the 1972 Israeli Olympic team. Shay Shapira, son of the murdered track trainer Amizur Shapira said the Kaddish for his father and the other victims. - Many thanks to Mrs. Lilo Mayr (Munich) for providing the photos for this album.

rijo

Like a flashback of 1972: Special police forces on the rooftops securing the area during the event

The attendees listening to a musical intermezzo

Lord Mayor Ude giving an interview after the ceremony

Wreaths laid down in front of the memorial in Connollystraße 31

Index

Home