

The First Grade of 1936 at Jewish Elementary School in Nuremberg

In June 2000 Mr. Max Lamm visited his native city of Nuremberg bringing with him a picture of himself and his first grade classmates at the Jewish elementary school (Obere Kanalstraße 25) in 1936. I offered to do research on the names and fates of these children in the holdings of Nuremberg City Archives. By comparing the class photo with the pictures in the municipal passport registry, I succeeded in naming 21 of 36 and finding out about what happened to them - until emigration or deportation. In 5 cases I happened to know where these people live today.

Because there are no more sources left in Nuremberg, I use the Web asking anybody who can for providing information on these children. Of course I would be glad to reconnect as many of them as possible. Please send a message to:
