

Book transit nürnberg #4: USA!

300 pages, bilingual English & German, hardcover with many (color) illustrations, ISBN 978-3-00-031503-9.

Merrell Barracks, emigration, IMT, Atlanta: Catchwords for the relations between Nuremberg and the U.S. transit nürnberg #4 contains the contributions of people who are entitled by their own experience or their professional knowledge to write about these subjects.

The price is 28 EUR & postage. No advance payment, just send a written order with your postal address and you will receive transit nürnberg #4: USA! You only have to pay on receipt of the book. From the USA payment without international money transfer fees is feasible by a cheque for the $-EUR equivalent at the time of the issuing.

Contents:

- Gerhard Jochem: Introduction by the editor
- Gerhard Jochem: The American presence in Nuremberg 1945 to 1995
- Raymond M. Weinstein: Nuremberg 1959 - 1960 remembered: an American soldier in postwar Germany
- Herbert R. (Jake) Jacobson: An experience for a lifetime: A G.I.'s Nuremberg 1959 - 1961
- Rick A. Gray: The Army said Germany, and to Germany I went. In Nuremberg and Bindlach, December 1962 - June 1965
- Tom Spahr: I hear that song and it all comes back: 1971/72 with the 17th Field Artillery Regiment in Nuremberg and Grafenwöhr
- Susanne Rieger: American traces
- Leopold Katz: My Nurembergs
- Verena Müller-Rohde: The Americans are coming! The Nurembergers' experience of the occupying forces
- Frank W.: Is it you who built the snowman? Frank W. searches for his father
- Harald T. Leder: Two people who changed their world: The story of an exceptional German-American relationship
- Ruth White: My America
- Ernest Lorch: The best country in which to live and succeed
- Lisa Lowe Stauffer: Atlanta
- Appendix: abbreviations, literature & sources

Contact: testimon publishers, P.O.B. 11 91 45, 90101
Nuremberg, Germany, email: [info\[at\]testimon.de](mailto:info[at]testimon.de)